

COACHING OPEN DAY 2017

BE EXCEPTIONAL. THE HENLEY WAY.

Wednesday 17 May 2017

COACHING OPEN DAY 2017

Learn what's on offer at The Henley Centre for Coaching & Behavioural Change and our wide ranging approach to coaching styles and techniques.

Hear from current students, meet the programme director and take part in a sample workshop.

THE HENLEY CENTRE FOR COACHING & BEHAVIOURAL CHANGE

Established in 2004, the Henley Centre for Coaching & Behavioural Change has built a strong reputation for its world-leading coaching qualifications, for both individuals and organisations. The Centre cultivates a learning community offering practitioner research, events and programmes to enhance the skill sets of successful leaders.

henley.ac.uk/openday

REGISTRATION

You can register to attend the morning or afternoon session. Buffet lunch will be served 12.30 – 13.30 for both morning and afternoon attendees.

	Morning session	Afternoon session
Registration (during lunch)	9.00-09.30	12.30-13.30
Introduction The route map for Henley coaching qualifications	09.30-10.15	13.30-14.15
Jonathan Passmore, Associate Professor and Executive Director
Sample session	10.15-11.30	14.15-15.30
Professor Alison Hardingham
Coffee and discussion	11.30-12.00	15.30-16.00
Presentation by current students	12.00-12.30	16.00-16.30
Tour of Henley site – optional	12.30-13.30	16.30-17.00
Lunch	12.30-13.30	12.30-13.30

Book your place:
www.henley.ac.uk/openday

The Henley Professional Certificate in Coaching

Designed for those with some knowledge or experience of coaching who wish to extend and develop their skills and the influence of coaching in their organisations. Three x 2-day workshops over a 6 – 9 month period and a 5,000 word assignment.

The Henley MSc in Coaching & Behavioural Change

Designed for those who wish to develop their coaching capabilities further and to improve their understanding of the business and organisational context of executive coaching. Part time over 30 months.

For more information on coaching qualifications, please contact:

Pauline Fletcher

Henley Business School
Greenlands, Henley-on-Thames
Oxfordshire, RG9 3AU

exec@henley.ac.uk
Tel +44 (0)1491 418 767

henley.ac.uk/coaching

Jonathan Passmore, Associate Professor and Executive Director

Jonathan Passmore is Executive Director of the Centre for Coaching and Behavioural Change at Henley Business School. He is a chartered psychologist with five degrees and has experience of coaching senior executives and cabinet ministers. He has worked for IBM Business Consulting and PwC, and has also worked in the academic sector, researching and writing extensively about coaching. He has published thirty books, over 100 peer reviewed papers and book chapters, and has spoken at numerous events. He is currently just completing an eight volume, two-million-word series on industrial and organisational psychology for Wiley.

Dr Dorota Joanna Bourne, Academic Director

Dr Dorota Joanna Bourne is the Academic Director of the Centre for Coaching and Behavioural Change at Henley Business School. She holds a PhD in Management and a fellowship of the Higher Education Academy. She is also a certified Neuro-Linguistic Programming Master Coach and a member of the British Psychological Society's Occupational Psychology and Coaching Psychology divisions. She works with senior business professionals as well as scholars in order to facilitate knowledge transfer between academia and practice. Her expertise lies in change management, organisational development and executive coaching. In her work she is developing approaches based on personal construct psychology and focusing on professional as well as personal transformations through coaching.

Professor Alison Hardingham, Tutor

Alison is the Lead Tutor for the Henley Coaching Programme, leading to the Henley Professional Certificate in Coaching. She is a well-known and widely published psychologist, specialising in individual development, leadership and change at a personal and organisational level and is also a very experienced executive coach. She is an approved coach for a number of large organisations. Alison is a Henley Visiting Executive Professor, and works on a number of our senior management and leadership programmes.

